

1 Corinthians 1:18-25

Introduction

1. The message of the cross divides the human race: 18-20

Jews and Greeks: 22

3. The message of the cross demonstrates God's supremacy in salvation: 24-25

2. The message of the cross destroys human wisdom: 21-23

The world: 21

Implications

Over coffee: 'For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power.' What can that mean, given that the power comes through 'preaching'?
